So That All May Know...

MILLBURY - As the ground war in the Gulf began, a sign listing the names of area military personnel serving in the war zone was erected by relatives at the corner of Elm and South Main Streets Sunday night. Putting the sign together were (l-r) Angela and Gary Gover, Janice Williams and her sister-in-law, Carol Williams. Janice Williams' son, Robert Guyan, is stationed in the Gulf, and the Gover's nephew, Charles Westling, has been placed on high alert.

Contact Janice Williams at 865-9409 if you have a loved one from Millbury serving in the Persian Gulf and their name does not appear on the display sign on the Common.

Drop a line to...

The Millbury-Sutton Chronicle is publishing the addresses of area residents serving in the military in the Middle East so that anyone wishing to send a card or letter to offer their support may do so.

This week we have featured SPC Matthew D. Lucier, the son of Jim and Barbara Lucier of Rhode Island, formerly of Millbury. Lucier is a 1987 graduate of Millbury High School. He played football at Millbury High and enjoys Scuba diving at Ramshorn Lake in the summer. He also attended Blackstone Valley Regional Vocational High School.

SPC Lucier is in the Army Infantry and was stationed in Germany prior to being sent for duty in Saudi Arabia. His parents said he is unable to disclose his present position but has called home twice in the past two weeks and reports that mail is running one month behind. Anyone who writes to Matthew, or anyone serving in the Gulf, should be patient about a return letter as mail home is also running one month behind.

You can reach SPC Lucier at the following address: SPC Matthew D. Lucier 017-58-5575, F. Co. 51 INF. 511 Mi. BN., Operation Desert Storm, APO NY 09748.

If you have a relative whose address you would like published, please mail it to: Millbury-Sutton Chronicle, 117 Elm Street, Millbury, MA 01527. Photos are also welcome.

Corridor Residents Fear Dealing with State

By Alec G. Belisle

MILLBURY - Some 50 residents who live along Rte. 146 attended a Saturday afternoon meeting February 24 called by the Rte. 146 Task Force to give residents an opportunity to view the state's preliminary options for the construction of a new exit onto the Massachusetts Turnpike and a new interchange to serve the Pike and Routes 146 and 20.

The meeting focused on the 32 residential and business properties located along Rte. 146 from the Mass. Pike overpass to the Worcester line. On a wall were engineering drawings of the completed proposal from the 122A/146 interchange to I290 in Worcester, and several small drawings of options which the state has proposed for the intersection of Rte. 146 and Rte. 122A which leads into Millbury Center.

Town Planner Dave Hulseberg, who chairs the Task Force, said a recent survey sent out to 4200 town residents indicates that of the 700 surveys returned to date, 70% of them show respondents favoring an interchange.

Hulseberg told residents that they must consider whether they would all prefer to have their homes taken by the state or whether they would prefer to see which homes would have to be taken in order to complete the project and have the state build the remaining residents a parallel local access road. The access road would allow them to enter Millbury without having to travel into Worcester.

Fire Chief Thomas Nault explained that as the plans presently are drawn, Millbury residents on the other side of the Rte. 20 overpass would be denied easy access into Millbury because Ballard Street would be cut off by a cul-de-sac. Nault said that emergency vehicles - fire, police ambulance - would have to travel into Worcester to Vernon Street to return to Millbury.

Glen Parath, who lives along the 146 corridor, added that school buses and mail delivery would also be affected by the proposed configuration.

"We want you (the Rte. 146 residents) to be fully aware of the ramifications of the plan," Nault said. He went on to explain that a recent test conducted by Massachusetts American Water Company, at the request of the fire department, shows that the present water flow to the corridor is deficient.

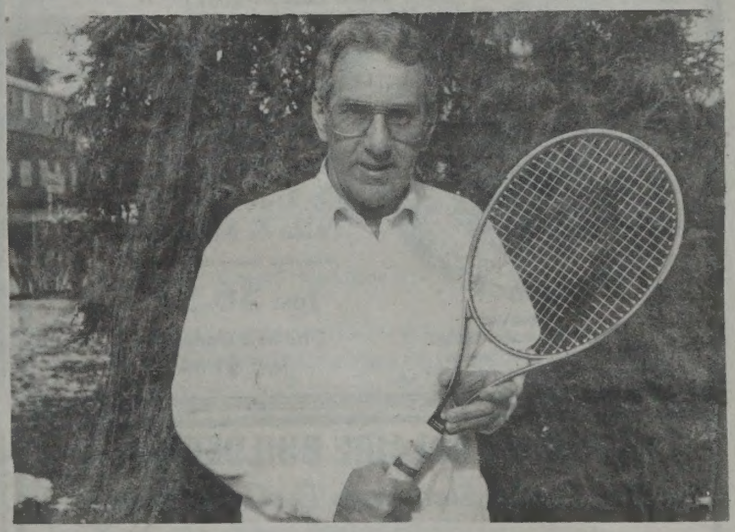
Fougere Ranked 13th by Tennis Association



MILLBURY - Millbury's own Bob Fougere has been ranked 13th in the Men's Singles category and 18th in the Men's 55 Singles category of the New England Lawn Tennis Association for 1990. Fougere, who played high school and semi-pro baseball, started his tennis career with his wife about 20 years ago. He initially played in the "B" league but, once filling in for players in the "A" league, started to play in the advanced leagues and enjoyed an accelerated improvement.

Fougere normally plays four to five times a week but frequently plays seven days a week as he follows tournament play in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island. He belongs to the Worcester Tennis Club, the Greendale YMCA, and the Westboro Tennis Club, where he plays year round when he is not in competition.

If you want to see Bob in person, stop by the 9:30 a.m. Mass at Assumption Church any Sunday. You'll find him at the rear of the church, where he serves as Usher every week.

Another Point of View

War Brewing on the Home Front

By Lawrence Moore

There is a constant stream of critical commentary, pundit pronouncement and cartoon caricature bemoaning the apparent concentration of Government thinking on the Gulf War. Not that our position in the Near East doesn't merit all the time and effort it's getting. What started as "euphoria" has dropped at least to "caution." And caution has been heightened by our inability to fathom the warmaking activities of Saddam.

In response, our government seems to be single-mindedly covering all bases, domestic and international, in pursuit of what now looks like an elusive victory. That's good.

But we are in the midst of another World War, and, unlike other nations, we seem to be ignoring this one. The casualties of the recession are already far greater than those of the "real" war. And it's only just begun.

The Resolution Trust Corp (really you and I) hold $146 billion in assets, and can't unload them.

The banking problem is assuming National proportions. More insurance company problems have surfaced. Scared banks are not lending money, so more and more businesses are going bankrupt.

Unemployment figures of 6.2% are misleading. Civilian unemployment is actually 7.7%.

The automobile industry is scheduling 6 million cars (as of now), the lowest figure in memory. That includes Japanese cars built here.

We are lowering interest rates while Germany and her European followers are raising theirs. To match Germany, the Netherlands and Austria raised their rates. Money which bought much of our deficit financing is now chasing higher interest overseas. As we lower rates our dollar continues to fall in world markets.

As world interest rates rise, the danger of world-wide slowdown increases. All is not well with other economies. Germany is the one shining star. Britain and Canada are in recession. Business is at a standstill in France, Italy and Spain. Even Japan was at least flat in the 4th quarter.

Have you read about this in the papers? Have you seen any of this on TV? It's been there ... but buried by the war news.

The news you don't see is that other countries, Japan, Germany, the Common Market, and the Pacific Rim nations are planning and taking action to stimulate themselves out of recession. We are not.

The budget President Bush has presented shows no recognition of economic problems at home. In 2,026 pages there is no plan to combat the recession, reduce the staggering budget deficit, or pay the cost of the war (estimated at the beginning of February to be about $2,500 per person).

Our economic position vis-a-vis the rest of the world at the end of the war is in peril. Without economic good-health, we will have lost the war at home.

School Committee Turns Down Cellular One Proposal

By Edward J. Cooney

MILLBURY - The February 20 School Committee meeting convened at 7:30 p.m. with all members present: Chet Hanratty, chairman; Ed Wilczynski; Bruce Pease; Jane Pojani; and Alan Marble.

Policy

Superintendent Alfred Sylvia presented the first item of business on the agenda, a review and second reading of the Curriculum Development and Improvement Policy. The committee unanimously accepted the second reading without discussion.

Cellular One

Sylvia addressed a request from Cellular One for the erection of a 300 foot communication tower at the Shaw Elementary School on town property. Present for the discussion were Town Planner Dave Hulseberg and David Burnett, a real estate consultant for Cellular One. Cellular One is licensed by the State of Massachusetts and is owned by Southwest Bell Telephone Co.

Hulseberg told the committee that the Planning Board has not yet made a decision on the appropriateness of the site. He said the first step was to come before the committee since they govern the piece of land upon which the proposed tower would be sited.

Hulseberg said there were two methods for the siting of a tower, one through the State Department of Public Utilities, which he said could site one anywhere it chooses, or through the local government or community. "The DPU can override any town's or community's concern," he said, but added that a community can make its voice heard.

Cellular One had originally sought a location at the rear of the Jen Manufacturing Company at the Millbury Industrial Park on Rte. 20. Burnett said Cellular One has a lease agreement proposal with Jen to use a portion of their land to site the tower.

Hulseberg explained that the Planning Board did begin discussions with Cellular One on that site but considered that the location of the tower at this site would create an appearance that is "extremely degrading." He also said the planning board felt the impact on the area near Rte. 20 would be a form of "blight" and suggested to Cellular One that there may be a better location for them to explore.

Hulseberg cited the benefits to the town as being:
1. Better cellular telephone communications.
2. Availability of using the structure for the community's needs, such as for the placement of an antenna on the structure for the police and fire departments.
3. If the tower is placed on town property the town would receive rent.

The committee then viewed a topographical map supplied by Hulseberg. The structure would be buffered and surrounded by an eight foot chain link fence with five rows of barbed wire on top. The proposal includes a 300 foot, free standing, self-supporting tower with a 20x30 precast equipment building. There would be no traffic to the location as the building would only house equipment.

Burnett said there were no safety concerns as they are stringently regulated and operate under a very low frequency. The station broadcasts at 800 megahertz with no interference to radio, TV, or appliances, according to Burnett.

"I'm sure the main concern that you might have is the visibility factor," Burnett said. "Towers, by their very nature, can be seen."

Burnett said that Cellular One has already negotiated a lease with Jen Manufacturing. If the school committee accepts the proposal to site the tower at the Shaw School property, Cellular One would duplicate the same lease. The lease would be for five years with (3) five year options, for a total of $232,000 paid for rent over that 20 year period.

Wilczynski raised a question concerning liability to the town. Burnett replied that the company has a $1,000,000 insurance policy and would indemnify the town and include a "hold harmless" clause in the lease.

Pojani questioned the proximity of the location to residents on Cyndy Lane, Nicole Drive, and other areas. Hulseberg acknowledged that the tower would be visible

A little neighborly help.

When you need help, a good neighbor will find a way to lend a hand. (In this case, a horse.)

And helping neighbors is what we do for a living.

The one goal of our independent community bank is to support our local communities, residents and businesses.

Your deposits are put to work right here where we all live and work. They're invested in loans to help the local economy and to create local jobs.

No distant office can order us to ignore the needs of our neighbors and to invest your savings somewhere else.

Nobody can tell us not to lend you a hand — and that makes us easy to remember when you choose a bank. . .

We're the neighborly one with the horse.

from some points entering Millbury as well as in the areas of Nicole Drive and Cyndy Lane.

Pojani asked about zoning requirements. Hulseberg said the proposed location is zoned residential and Cellular One would require a special permit. He also noted that a hearing would be held by the Planning Board and all abutters within 300 feet of the property would be notified and given the opportunity to express their concerns.

Hulseberg also noted that 10 feet away from the proposed site at the Shaw School is land held in private by Homart Corporation, the potential developers of a mall off Rte. 146. He said two other sites have been identified but are on private property; one on Greenwood Street and one in the Industrial Park.

Marble said that if siting the tower at the industrial park would create an eyesore, why would siting it at the Shaw School not also present an eyesore to the Center of town.

Hulseberg said he did not want to make any judgments for any members of the Planning Board.

Pojani suggested that the proposed area be staked or flagged so the committee can visit the site.

On Saturday, February 23, the school committee visited the site and voted unanimously to deny Cellular One's request.

Administrative Staff

Sylvia gave the committee a study of central office and administrative staff in school departments in surrounding towns. He said the survey shows that Millbury's administrative staffing is not "out of whack" with other communities.

Warrant Articles

Sylvia said two articles have been submitted to the selectmen for town meeting: one for $21,000 for a 16 passenger minivan and another for back pay for a custodian.

Dorothy Manor School

Business Manager Sue Pierce spoke to an addenda item concerning the drafting of a new lease for the Dorothy Manor School under the state procurement laws. She said she will be attending a seminar in Fitchburg on March 19 to get more information on the law.

Sylvia suggested that the 90 day notification for taking back the Dorothy Manor School should be shortened in case of an emergency where the building would be needed immediately or in a short time frame.

Student Council

Marble asked Sylvia to check with the advisor to the Student Council concerning the lack of activities by the Council. He said it has come to his attention that besides the meeting for nominations and elections, no other meetings or activities have been held.

School Club

Pojani said she received a letter indicating that one of the school clubs was meeting Sunday nights in an advisor's home. She said it would be a good idea to have the club meet after school or in the evening at the high school. Wilczynski said he had received a similar letter.

Sylvia he was not aware of that going on and was not sure it if was a school club. He said he would check on it.

Budget

Hanratty reported that the original budget proposed by the Superintendent was 7% above last year's, but has since been reduced to 2.2% over last year's budget. He said the majority of the 2.2% increase can be attributed to about $450,000 in contracted salary increases.

From My Window on Farnsworth Court

By "Pastor Rae" Cameron

When I go skiing, they tell me that when I come to a rather steep part of the course to think April 15th and just let her go. The idea is that if you kill yourself you won't have to worry about paying your income taxes.

To me, income taxes to both state and federal government, and when I lived in Philadelphia there were city ones as well, are very unconstitutional. We all want to pay our fair share, but the way income taxes are set up you can hardly help from being dishonest. Besides, my conservative New England background says that it's nobody's business how much I earn.

There are several stories about Jesus and the paying of taxes. The more familiar one is when he borrowed a penny and asked whose inscription was on it, the answer being, "Caesar's." Then he responded that we should render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's. This is a key verse for the separation of Church and State.

The other story is when Peter asked about paying taxes and Jesus sent him back to go fishing and he found a coin in the fish's mouth with which to pay his taxes. I don't know completely the significance of this except that we all have to pay our taxes. We may not approve of all the things that are bought with them as well. God help us to be as honest as possible when we make out our personal income taxes. Amen.

Evening of Song

MILLBURY - The Women's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church, West Main Street, will host an evening of song and fellowship on Friday, March 1, at 7 p.m. The public is invited to enjoy a performance by the Greendale Retired Men's Club Chorus. Admission is free.

Joan Greenwood, Ella Grout, Kay Lachance, Ruth Marble, Mildred Michelson, Jean O'Leary, Linda Pollissack, Janet Rudge, Wilma Ryder, and Betty Stockwell will serve coffee "and" in the vestry following the performance.

Coffee with the Principal

MILLBURY - Is your 8th grade student worried about course selection for next year? Join Daniel Carmody, principal, as he explains the subject selection process on Monday, March 4, at 7 p.m. in the Jr./Sr. High School media center.

Eighth grade students will soon be issued course guides and selection sheets. Carmody will hold this informal meeting to explain these sheets and to answer any questions about them.

Beacon Hill Roll Call

This week's Beacon Hill Roll Call records the votes of Senator Matthew Amorello on 4 roll calls from Senate debate on the proposed rules for the 1991-1992 Senate sessions. There were no roll calls in the House. House debate on Governor Weld's proposed $350 million deficit reduction package is scheduled to begin on February 25.

—— (S 1326) Senate 24-15, rejected an amendment abolishing the Senate Steering and Policy Committee. Amendment supporters said the committee was established as a rules reform in 1983 to schedule the workload of the Senate but has simply become another leadership tool to bottle up bills for 45 days. Opponents said the committee has been useful in scheduling the Senate workload and should not be abolished. Amorello voted to abolish the committee.

—— (S 1326) Senate 21-18, rejected an amendment allowing bills to be discharged from the Steering and Policy committee by a two-thirds vote for the first 30 days after referral and by a majority vote after 30 days. Current rules do not provide a discharge policy for Steering and Policy but simply require automatic discharge after 45 days. Amendment supporters said this will prevent the leadership from bottling bills up for 45 days and will allow senators to discharge measures earlier. Opponents said the automatic discharge after 45 days is sufficient and has worked well. Amorello voted for the amendment.

—— (S 1326) Senate 24-15, rejected an amendment allowing home rule petitions involving individual cities and towns to bypass the Steering and Policy Committee and be placed quickly on the Senate agenda for consideration. Amendment supporters said this helps local communities by speeding up the process for Senate approval of non-controversial local bills. Opponents said it is important for the Steering and Policy committee to network on these petitions and check with local communities. Amorello vote for the amendment.

— (S 1326) Senate 23-15 favored but failed to gain the two-thirds vote necessary to suspend rules to allow immediate consideration of resolutions stating the intent of the Senate to authorize the Rules Committee, subject to appropriation, to spend up to $1.5 million for the initial capital and technical assistance for televising Senate sessions before June 30. Rule suspension supporters said this is an important statement that the Senate favors an orderly and timely procedure to establish TV coverage of the sessions. Opponents said the resolutions are meaningless and simply continue to delay implementation of TV coverage which was approved almost two years ago. They argued the resolutions are designed to protect senators who voted against immediate TV coverage by putting them on record favoring these resolutions and claim that senators who truly favor quick TV coverage oppose these resolutions. Amorello voted against rule suspension.

He said the fire department will be making recommendations on access and availability to water.

One of the alternatives drawn up by the state's consultants, HNTB, includes a parallel route for residents who remain along Rte. 146. Parath asked what the quality of life would be like with the parallel road. "You all know how noisy it is and what the pollution and the traffic is now," he said. "Just imagine 50,000 cars a day within eyesight and earshot of your house as it is right now. And even if they left your house there and moved the road westerly so they don't have to take your house, what is it going to be like living in your house with all this extra traffic and noise?" [The state projects an increase in traffic from 30,000 trips per day to 50,000 trips per day.]

Hulseberg noted that Rte. 146 connects Worcester, the second largest city in New England to Providence, the third largest city. The port of Providence brings in all fuel and oil for the Northeast.

Selectman Jude Cristo, also a property owner along Rte. 146, asked how any decisions could be made until "all the cards are on the table." "It appears that at this point in time that some of the proposals, with the possibility of other proposals, could change things dramatically," he said.

"Right now we're at a point where these are the plans that have been presented," Hulseberg said. "We know that the state has agreed and is seeking funding to design a westerly route for us."

North Main Street resident Janet Mulcahy asked, "Why do we keep having meeting after meeting after meeting with 'what if this; what if this.' Why don't they finally decide, and we'll let them know what we decide. We're up in the air with, do I have to move? Is my house going to be taken? Is our opinion going to make any damn difference?" she asked, with the audience chuckling in the background.

Senator Matthew Amorello (R-Grafton) told the audience that it was important that they have an opportunity to speak and to have their thoughts expressed. "I'm hearing everything you have to say," he said, "and I'm going to take that back to Boston with me."

"I favor the plan," said Representative Paul Kollios (D-Millbury), "and I think not only will it enhance the economic development of Worcester and the Blackstone Valley, but certainly it must enhance the economic development of Millbury."

Hulseberg told the residents at the outset of the meeting that there were two procedures for taking property. The first is to offer the fair market value for the property which is determined by three appraisals. The second is for the state to give the residents a like or similar home in a like or similar neighborhood. He said that the state would have to provide a home of at least the same square footage in a similar neighborhood. He added that if that was impossible to do, the state would then be forced to go up a step, which could be more than $30,000 over the appraised value.

In closing the meeting, Hulseberg asked the residents to fill out a survey. Some of the results are listed below. Of the 29 residential property owners invited to the meeting, 23 took the survey.

Q: Do you desire the interchange to occur?
A: 16 said yes, 1 said no, 6 had no opinion.
Q: Would you prefer to stay in your present location if the interchange is built as proposed?
A: 22 said no, 1 said yes.
Q: If forced to relocate, do you desire to reside in another part of Millbury?
A: 19 said yes, 2 said no, 2 had no opinion.
Q: Would you favor a home swap of equal or greater value or a fair market value?
A: 19 said yes, 3 wanted money, 1 had no opinion.
Q: Are you fearful of dealing with the State?
A: 22 said yes, 1 said no.

Students help out

MILLBURY - Students from the Millbury Chapter of the National Honor Society traveled to the Mustard Seed in Worcester recently to aid in serving meals to the needy. A total of 15 students were involved in the two day project. This project was one example of the many community services that Honor Society students will perform throughout the year, in attempting to fulfill the goals of the National Honor Society.

Following a tour of the facilities, Sister Donna, Mustard Seed Director, shared with students the purpose of the programs offered and the makeup of the population serviced. Students then assisted in serving the evening meal and cleaning up. All students demonstrated eagerness, caring and concern in carrying out their assigned tasks.

When asked about their experience, the students said it was a positive and worthwhile endeavor. Many also indicated that they anticipated returning to volunteer again, and hoped Society members would become involved on a regular basis.

He became principal of the Whitinsville Christian school in September, 1989. He and his wife, Avlyn, have two children attending Calvin College and are members of the Pleasant Street Christian Reformed Church.

Nominee for Chancellor's Talent Award Program

SUTTON - Kristen Levins is the Sutton Memorial Junior-Senior High School nominee for the University of Massachusetts at Amherst Chancellor's Talent Award Program. Each year, Massachusetts high schools nominate juniors who demonstrate excellent academic potential for college, based on grades and P.S.A.T. scores. These students and their parents are then invited to the university for a tour and luncheon. Nominees will be tested and from these test results, 31 Merit Scholarships will be awarded providing a four year waiver of tuition worth $7,740 at current rates.

Geography Bee Winner

SUTTON - Carlye Austin, a grade eight student at Sutton Memorial Junior-Senior High School won the school's geography bee on February 8, and a chance at a $25,000 college scholarship. The school-level bee, at which students answered oral questions on geography, was the first round in the third annual National Geography Bee.

The bee was kicked off the week of January 28 in thousands of schools around the United States, District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories. The school winners, including Carlye Austin, will now take a written test; up to 100 of the top scorers in each state will be eligible to compete in their state bee April 5.
